

Terrible Suffering

Eczema All Over Baby's Body.
"When my baby was four months old his face broke out with eczema, and at sixteen months of age, his face, hands and arms were in a dreadful state. The eczema spread all over his body. We had to put a mask or cloth over his face and tie up his hands. Finally we gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a few months he was entirely cured. Today he is a healthy boy." Mrs. Inez Lewis, Barre, Maine.
Hood's Sarsaparilla cures blood diseases and builds up the system.

BREAKS A COLD IN JUST A FEW HOURS

Proves Quinine Is Never Effective in the Cure of a Severe Cold or the Grippe.

Nothing else that you can take will break your cold or grippe so promptly as a dose of Pape's Cold Compound every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken.
The most miserable neuralgia pains, headache, dizziness and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, running of the nose, sore throat, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness, rheumatism pains and other distress begin to leave after the very first dose.
Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.
Take this harmless compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any drugist in the world can supply.

WALKER NOT DISCOURAGED.

And Now Appeals to Membership of the Home Market Club.

Boston, Nov. 19.—Joseph Walker of Brookline, speaker of the Massachusetts House of Representatives, is unwilling to accept his defeat at the Home Market club meeting on Wednesday as final and has begun a canvass of the entire membership of the club in an effort to learn their attitude toward his resolution endorsing the tariff policy of President Taft.
He has sent a return postal card to each member, printing the resolution in full with the question, "Do you favor this resolution?" and an opportunity for an answer "yes" or "no."
The card also bears a communication in which Mr. Walker points out that the resolution was voted down at the annual meeting of the club by a vote of 48 to 8 and says:
"The club has a membership of nearly one thousand. I cannot believe that the club wishes to go on record as against the announced program of President Taft, a program which alone can unite Republicans and prevent Democratic tariff revision."

Business Reported in Dun's.
New York, Nov. 19.—Despatches to R. G. Dun & Co. indicate more uniform trade conditions, demand in many lines being stimulated by seasonable weather. Business improves at Boston, retail trade being more active and a more extensive demand appearing in jobbing lines. Demand for leather is expanding and cotton goods are firm, although quiet, while the movement of wool to the mills steadily increases. Bank exchanges this week at all leading cities in the United States amount to $3,002,132,904, a decrease of 5.5 per cent. compared with last year and of 6.7 compared with 1906.

Baldheaded Men

Ignorance of the Hair Causes Much Baldness Among Men.

Early plety doesn't cause baldness, neither does any kind of plety. Some bald-headed men console themselves with the idea that baldness is caused by a superabundance of gray brain matter and would have the world believe that a bald head is a sign of great intellect.
Such, however, is not the case. Ninety-nine times in one hundred, baldness is caused by dandruff germs which dig down deep into the roots of the hair, destroy its vitality and cause it to fall out.
All this may come gradually and take time, but, as an up-to-date humorist would say, "What's time to a dandruff germ?"
If you have dandruff, the little invisible, persistent devil called dandruff germs are at work. Destroy them at once, or sooner or later they will cause your hair to fall out and you will be compelled to take your place in the bald-headed class.
In France baldheads are few because men understand how to care for the hair. Parisian Sage is a hair grower and invigorator that is guaranteed by the Red Cross Pharmacy to grow hair, if the hair root is not already destroyed, to eradicate dandruff, stop itching scalp and falling hair, or money back.
Fifty cents for a large bottle at the Red Cross Pharmacy and druggists everywhere on money-back plan.

BRIBERY INVESTIGATION

Resumed Again in New York—Committee Hears Testimony of Mr. Travis, Who Says He Was Offered Big Sum.

New York, Nov. 19.—The legislative bribery investigation committee, which was in the midst of its inquiry into the means used in the effort to defeat the anti-betting legislation at Albany in 1908, when it adjourned before election, plunged again yesterday into this phase of its investigation.
Orlando A. Jones, a bookmaker, the first witness called, was questioned at length by Judge Bruce, counsel for the committee, regarding the objects and methods of the Metropolitan Turf association.
This organization, Mr. Jones admitted, was known popularly as the bookmakers' association before the passage of the anti-betting bill.
It helped to carry out its purpose of "improving the breed of horses" by contributing at one time to the racing association, the witness testified, to the amount of $600 daily.
Jones said the association levied no assessments for the defeat of the anti-betting measure. He admitted that assessments were raised for the employment of lawyers to aid in the defeat of the bill by presenting the views of the association.
Senator Eugene M. Travis of Brooklyn testified that he voted in favor of the anti-race track bill. He had been approached by a lobbyist, whose name he did not recall, he said, and who told him that more votes were needed to defeat the bill.
"I told him," said Senator Travis, "my vote was already pledged for the bill and that ended the conversation."
He said this same man came to him and said Senator Gardner wanted him on the telephone. "I telephoned Senator Gardner," said Senator Travis, "and that the amount of money offered would be paid."

"How much was it?"
"Twenty-five thousand dollars before I voted and $75,000 after the vote was cast."
Senator Travis added by way of explanation that this mysterious lobbyist had mentioned the amount he was to be paid before he called ex-Senator Gardner.
This was in the lobby of the Senate. Senator Travis said he saw this same lobbyist talking with other senators.

Application for an investigation under the terms of the act has been made to Judge Cannon. The petition claims that the United Shoe Machinery company practically controls the shoe trade of Canada.

BIG LOANS BY STANDARD.
Amount Obtained in Six Weeks Said to Be $50,000,000.

New York, Nov. 19.—The Standard Oil company has been loaning money heavily in the last three months, according to well-informed brokers in Wall street. They estimate that upward of $50,000,000 has been loaned by the corporation in the open market on time, in that period, most of it in the last six weeks. In many cases, it is said, this money has been loaned under the ruling rates.
The Standard Oil company has been a heavy lender of funds in Wall street for many years, but the fact that it has so much money to loan at present is looked upon as confirmatory of the general impression that it has not been engaged in the recent movement to advance prices in the stock market.

UPHOLDS PROHIBITION LAW.
Alabama Supreme Court Rules That Liquor May Be Seized Before Delivery.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 19.—The Alabama supreme court Thursday held valid the statute for the suppression of the evils of intemperance. The case was brought up from the city court of Montgomery by William J. Toole, on whose residential premises 114 casks of beer were seized a year ago. The court overruled Toole in his contention that the Alabama law was not operative, because the beer comprised interstate shipments by foreign corporations to divers persons in this state and that the liquor was in transit, Toole holding it for purchasers.

BLOWN INTO A TREE.
Strange Experience of Chauffeurs When Automobile Exploded.

Harvard, Mass., Nov. 19.—An explosion in an automobile which was driving a long a lonely country road Thursday night blew Thomas W. Slikker, a Malden chauffeur, high in the air and landed him in the branches of a tree, where he remained most of the time unconscious until yesterday morning, when he was discovered by a milkman.
He was brought to this town and is said to be in a serious condition as the result of injuries to his chest and shoulders and the subsequent exposure.
Slikker is employed as a chauffeur by Walter H. Roberts, an attorney with offices in Boston and a residence in Malden.
The automobile crashed into a fence and was wrecked.

APPEAL TO THE PEOPLE

That is Now the Only Possible Course

ACCORDING TO ASQUITH

Balfour Takes Another View—Lords Must Vote on Veto, and Parliament Will Be Dissolved if It Is Rejected.

London, Nov. 19.—It is the intention of the government to pass the essential features of the budget, namely, the income tax, tea duty and sinking fund provisions; remove the pauper disqualification for old age pension, and to dissolve parliament on Nov. 28, should the lords in the meantime reject the veto bill.
Presenting this programme in the house of commons yesterday, Premier Asquith said that he had hoped up to the last moment that the veto conference would reach a settlement.
There never had been a more honest or more sustained attempt by men of strong and conflicting convictions to find a basis of agreement upon which to build a structure promising stability and endurance.
In view of the failure of the conference, Mr. Asquith said that it would be useless to attempt to hammer out an agreement in the present parliament to the accompaniment of the din of party collision.
"The result is that we revert to a state of war," declared the premier, who continued: "The lords will be given an opportunity of saying 'yes' or 'no' to the government's veto bill in the coming week. There is no question of amendment or transformation. It is a question of acceptance or rejection."
The time has come for this controversy, which obstructs the whole path of progressive legislation, to be sent for final decisive arbitration to the national tribunal.

Mr. Asquith denied the assertion of the conservatives that the government was acting under pressure, saying that he understood that the charge was that pressure was being applied by the sinister hand of the black angel of this political drama, Mr. Redmond.
Mr. Asquith then detailed the legislation that the government proposed to pass before the dissolution of parliament and said that it would be necessary to appropriate $2,500,000 to carry out the provisions of the act removing the pauper disqualification from old age pension. He concluded by promising that if the government obtained the requisite parliamentary majority, he would next year bring in a bill to provide for the payment of members of the house of commons.
Arthur J. Balfour, leader of the opposition in the house of commons, who made the unionist key note speech at Nottingham Thursday night, yesterday attacked the government programme as announced by the premier. Speaking in the house of commons, he described the government method of procedure as unprecedented and unconstitutional. The British ministry, he said, had made up their minds that all chance of the lords making moderate and reasonable proposals for the settlement of the question at issue between the two houses must be avoided at all hazards, so was rushing through a dissolution of parliament before it would be possible for the moderates on both sides to form a tangent.
Pressed for a statement on the subject of guarantees from the crown, Premier Asquith said that his declaration of last April still represented the deliberate intentions of the government. "I decline now," he declared, "and shall continue to decline to make a statement regarding the advice which I may have given or hereafter may give. The crown stands aloof from all our political and electoral controversies, and it is the duty of his subjects, as well as of his ministers, to maintain secure his absolute detachment from the arena of party struggles."
